

200HR TEACHER TRAINING PROGRAM

The mission of Strongheart Yoga has always been to bring the beauty and benefits of yoga to everyone, in “every body”. We pride ourselves on our commitment to creating a safe and nonjudgmental environment where learning is not intimidating for anyone.

The world contains a diverse set of people—young and old; fit and challenged; of many backgrounds—and the belief of Strongheart is that there is a practice of yoga that can benefit each of them.

Our 200HR Teacher Training Program strives to make the physical and mental benefits of yoga accessible, and train teachers to teach everyone with confidence, understanding, and compassion. Kindness, personal attention, and encouragement are the guiding principles as students deepen their understanding and learn to share it with others.

“The training at Strongheart brought a lightness into my life. Transformational, invigorating, enlivened, engaged and grounded!! A profound difference for my inner self to shine brighter.”

~ Karen Messineo, RYT, 2020

PROGRAM TEACHER

Pattie McCann, ERYT200 & YACEP

With over 20 years of diligent practice and 18 years of teaching, Pattie has accumulated a knowledge and understanding of sharing the practice with all levels of students. As a studio owner and teacher, she has taught a wide range of classes, from active vinyasa and ashtanga to basic, gentle, and chair yoga. Those students, with their diverse interests and abilities, have been the best teachers. But she has also continued to grow her understanding by studying with great teachers in different traditions.

With a love of all the elements of yoga, she has sought out leading teachers of both the philosophy and physical wellness aspects of the practice. Her open-minded curiosity has led her to explore workshop trainings in Ashtanga, Iyengar, Restorative, Viniyoga, and Trauma Sensitive Yoga. Doug Keller, Donna Farhi, Julie Gudmestad, Kristin Cavileri Weber, and Tom Myers are recent strong influences and favorite teachers.

In 2015, Pattie planned and led the first Teacher Training Program at Strongheart Yoga. Over the years since, she has seen numerous students accept what she shared, successfully graduate, and go on to share the practice with others.

"I love the study of yoga; I love learning from wise teachers and beautiful texts. I love that an ancient art and science can be brought into our modern lives to enrich and fulfill them. Even more I love seeing people transformed by the joy and confidence yoga can offer, and recognizing potential they didn't realize was there all the time."

~Pattie McCann ERYT200, Program Teacher
